J. W. WILLIAMSON, AGENT.

It will be seen that the subscription price of the Journal has been raised to $1.50 per copy. This change is perfectly unavoidable under the circumstances. There are two reasons for it. In the first place the price never should have been put below $1.50. The labor and expense of getting out a county paper is such that it cannot be done properly below that price. Secondly: We have now to pay just about one hundred per cent more for paper and other printing materials than they could be bought at three months ago. We do not look for the present prices to continue, but have no expectation of ever reducing the price of the Journal from the present rates, but will enlarge and improve it as soon as we can.

On Thursday night of last week we accompanied Dr. Bosworth to Indianapolis, to which point he "reported" for orders as Sanitary Agent. He was to leave for Memphis on Saturday, where he will remain for some time for the purpose of looking after the condition of our military establishments there and seeing to the general sanitary condition of our soldiers. We hope to hear from the Doctor occasionally.

We found Dr. Jones on hand just ready to take his departure for Louisville.

On Saturday there was great activity among the soldiers there, several regiments being on the point of leaving.

The HORTICULTURIST, a journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste, for December, is received. It has articles on orchard culture, farmer's libraries, regenerating old houses, remarks upon dahlias, reports of Agricultural Societies, and several articles on grapes. In addition to all this, there is the Editor's Table—always full of interest—containing notes and queries, answers to correspondents, &c. There is a splendid orange-shaped quince for the engraving in this number. The publishers make fine promises for the volume of 1863.—Every number is to have an engraving; also, two handsomely colored plates. The April number is to contain a colored plate of the Delaware grape. Each number contains 42 pages, making a volume of 400 pages.

Captains Carter and Miller of the 84th Ind., are now here on a short leave of absence. They report "all quiet" at the mouth of the Big Sandy. They think they have but little prospect at present for active service. The boys are well and in good spirits for the most part.

The Messrs. Captains will leave for their rendezvous on Monday week. Persons desirous to send letters or packages of any kind to members of the 84th will have an excellent opportunity by leaving them at the store of J. D. Carter, No. 8 East front, properly marked and directed.

A ship named George Washington, was over hauled by U. S. Marshall, at New York, it being alledged she had contraband goods on board.

We respectfully ask the assistance of our friends throughout the county (and wherever else they may be located, as for that matter,) in obtaining new subscribers. All such favors will be suitably reciprocated. Soldiers and teachers still supplied for $1.00 in advance.

A general rise is taking place among the newspapers. Most of the New York papers have put up their price about 50 per cent. Even the indomitable old Tribune has advanced to $1.50 where the names of subscribers are put on their copies. The Philadelphia Press has done the same, and the Enquirer has greatly reduced its size. Indeed, the general alternative is to rise or "go under."

Captain Carter says, it is the event of the week when the Journal reaches the 84th. We shall be pleased to send any number of copies to the boys at the rate of $1.00 a year. We have to pre-pay the postage. Parents or friends of soldiers from this county, could hardly send them a more acceptable present. Arrangements are being made to get frequent intelligence from every point where we have soldiers.

DO YOU GET YOUR PAPERS REGULARLY? — A new carrier will serve our town subscribers hereafter and it is probable some mistakes will occur. Will persons missing their copies please send to the office and get them and let us know they have been missed.

There is some little confusion as to who want their papers at this office and who at the Post-office. If parties will just indicate to the present publisher where they wish their papers left they will find them there. Arrangements have been made with the Postmaster and we are prepared to act on the choice of subscribers.

Our friends visiting Indianapolis (and who does not find occasion to visit the capital, now?) will find the Spencer House, north west of the Union Depot, a convenient and eligible place to stop. See card in this paper.

Did you ever see finer weather in December? The roads with us are in fine condition, firm and dry.

Capt. Carter informs us that there are about 200 of the 84th now in hospital at Catlettsburg, the county in which George Washington was born. He entered the active militia and served about one year in the last century; again, when our country was invaded by a foreign foe, in 1812, he rallied to the rescue of the American Flag, serving about 12 months in the army.

In the year 1830 he removed to this State and for 30 years has been a citizen of this county.

Being comparatively poor and having a large family he had to contend with many of the difficulties incident to pioneer life, amidst all of which he has sustained himself as an honorable and upright man in all of his dealings, being kind and obliging in his disposition he was of consequence a good and agreeable neighbor, and although age had circumscribed his influence for the last few years, he will be very much missed by a disconsolate widow and a large family of children and grand-children, as well as by many near neighbors and friends.

Since the commencement of our present national difficulties two of his sons, fired with the Patriotism that burned in a Father's bosom, rallied to our country's rescue, both of whom have fallen in the service.

Although Father Pursey, to my knowledge, never made a public profession of religion, conscious of his approaching dissolution, he has for some time manifested deep concern for his soul's salvation, and from an intimate acquaintance with him in his last illness, we humbly trust that he rests from his labors in the blessed prospect of an immortality.

Charles Wimer, the illustrious artist of the West, expired, of consumption, at his residence, St. Louis, Mo., on the night of November 30th ult.

WHISKY AND NEWSPAPERS.

A glass of whisky is manufactured from perhaps a dozen grains of corn, the value of which is too small to be estimated. A pint of this mixture sells for one shilling, and, if of a good brand, is considered well worth the money. It is drunk in a minute or two. It fires the brain, sharpens the appetite, deranges and weakens the physical system. On the same sideboard upon which this delicious beverage is served lies a newspaper. It is covered with half a million of types—it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe. The newspaper costs less than the glass of grog, the juice of a few grains of corn; but it is no less strange than true that there is a large portion of the community who think corn-juice cheap and the newspaper dear!—Scientific American.

It is easy to say grace, but not half so easy to possess it.

The nightcap would be the cap of liberty—if it were not for certain lectures.

Don't fret on account of your bankruptcy. Your creditors will do it for you.

[Jay Torch Light please copy.]

MORRISON.—In hospital, at Cattelburg, Ky., on the 8th instant, of measles, JOHN S. MORRISON, son of Captain CARTER'S COMPANY, aged 20. He was a son of Mr. JOHN MORRISON, living 4 miles South of town, and was highly respected by all his acquaintances. His remains reached here on yesterday morning and were taken charge of by his family.

PURSLEY.—At his residence, on the 4th instant, Mr. JESSE PURSLEY aged 86 years and 10 months.

Father Pursey was born in Westmoreland county, Virginia, the county in which George Washington was born. He entered the active militia and served about one year in the last century; again, when our country was invaded by a foreign foe, in 1812, he rallied to the rescue of the American Flag, serving about 12 months in the army.

In the year 1830 he removed to this State and for 30 years has been a citizen of this county.

Being comparatively poor and having a large family he had to contend with many of the difficulties incident to pioneer life, amidst all of which he has sustained himself as an honorable and upright man in all of his dealings, being kind and obliging in his disposition he was of consequence a good and agreeable neighbor, and although age had circumscribed his influence for the last few years, he will be very much missed by a disconsolate widow and a large family of children and grand-children, as well as by many near neighbors and friends.

Large contributions are being made in New York, for the relief of suffering English operatives.

It is learned from Memphis papers, that Gen. Hovey's expedition, 20,000 strong, which left Helena some days since, reached and captured Grenada on Monday of last week. The rebels before leaving, burnt 15 or 20 locomotives, and one hundred cars.

About the 5th inst., a fleet of several transports, and two gun boats, left Fortress Monroe with sealed orders,—destination unknown.
